

KARA HERITAGE INSTITUTE

Invitation to the launch of Mudjadji Legacy

The Kara Heritage Institute in partnership with the Department of Arts and Culture, the South African Heritage Resource Agency, the Greater Letaba Municipality and the Modjadji Royal Council cordially invite you to the launch of Queen Mudjadji Legacy Project.

The event will take place at Ga-Kgapane Township, Modjadjiskloof. The town named in tribute to the Rain Queen, Modjadji, the traditional mystic of the Balobedu people who live in this beautiful, heavily wooded part of the country, where tranquil hint at mysticism that surrounds the legendary Rain Queen. The hereditary Queen of the Balobedu, Modjadji the Rain Queen, has special powers bestowed on her that grant her the ability to control clouds and rainfall.

Date: 16 April 2015.
Time: 08h00 to 16h00
Venue: Ga-Kgapane Community Hall, Modjadjieskloof, Limpopo Province
RSVP: Ms Cathy Lodi
Email: admin@kara.co.za or cathylodi@kara.co.za
Tel: 012 323 7737
Fax: 012 323 6459
Cell: 082 397 4921

Queen Makoto Mudjadji

Looking forward to seeing you there!!!

arts & culture
Department:
Arts and Culture
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

